

Analysis of rhetorical devices used in political discourse exemplified by selected speeches of Barack Obama

Chapter 1

Language3

- 1.1 Definition of language 3
- 1.2 Functions of language 7
- 1.3 Varieties and styles of language 9

Chapter 2

Language for special purposes 12

- 2.1 Definition of language for special purposes 12
- 2.2 Vocabulary of language for special purposes 14
- 2.3 Political discourse as a language for special purposes 15
 - 2.3.1 Definition of discourse 16
 - 2.3.2 Definition of political discourse 18
 - 2.3.3 Political speech 22

Chapter 3

Rhetorical device 27

- 3.1 Definition of a rhetorical device 27
 - 3.1.1 Tropes29
 - 3.1.2 Schemes30

3.2 Functions of rhetorical devices	31
3.3 Rhetorical devices used in public speaking	34

Chapter 4

Characteristics of the source37

4.1 Presentation of the source	37
4.2 Content and composition of the source	40
4.2.1 Pauses and silences	43
4.3 Linguistic aspects of the source	45
4.3.1 Rule of three	49
4.3.2 Syntax	50
4.3.2a Contracted forms	51
4.3.3 Semantics and pragmatics	52
4.3.4 Lexicon	53
4.3.4a Personal pronouns	54
4.3.4b Idioms	57

Chapter 5

Analysis of rhetorical devices employed in selected speeches59

5.1 Metaphor	59
5.2 Narration, anecdote and example	62
5.3 Repetition	64
5.3.1 Anadiplosis	65
5.3.2 Anaphora	65
5.3.3 Epiphora	66
5.4 Appeal	67
5.5 Quotation	68
5.6 Chiasmus	69
5.7 Antithesis (contrast)	70
5.8 Climax	70
5.9 Word play	72
5.10 Allusion	72

5.11 Rhetorical questions	74
5.12 Synecdoche	75
5.13 Cumulation	76
5.14 Irony	77
5.15 Polysyndeton	78

Conclusions79

Summary in polish82

Bibliography89

Appendixes.....94

Appendix 1

Life and political career of Barack Obama 94

1.1 Life of Barack Obama94

1.2 Political Career of Barack Obama 95

1.3 Barack Obama as Orator97

Appendix 2

Iowa Caucus Speech January 3, 2008 98